

English C Course Semester 2 2002

Theme: Communication Skills for Travel

Lecturer's name: Junko Yamamoto

Course objectives:

- : to activate and improve students' listening and speaking skills
- : to develop students' confidence in communicating in English

Course content:

The lessons are designed around travel, tourism, and survival English. In each class, students will practise their speaking and listening skills in lessons focusing on real life situations based on these topics.

Information for students:

Students must be prepared to participate actively in class. A certain amount of memorization will be encouraged. Punctual attendance is also required.

Textbook/materials:

PASSPORT Oxford University Press
Additional materials provided

Evaluation:

- : ongoing informal assessment of classwork and participation 70%
- : end-of-course oral examination 50%

English Education Centre Ehime University

科目番号 506