

English FC Course Summer 2002

---

Theme: Contemporary Social Issues

---

Lecturer's name: Matthew Macdonald

Course objectives:

- : to improve communication ability
- : to gain confidence in expressing ideas and opinions
- : to gain awareness of social issues affecting Japanese society

Course content:

Students will study various social issues that are relevant in Japan today, with the main focus being on discussion and forming opinions.

Information for students:

Students must be ready to participate actively and be prepared to justify their points of view.

Textbook/materials:

All classroom materials provided

Evaluation:

Weekly informal assessment of class activities 75%
Oral examination 25%