

English C Course

Semester 2 2002

Theme: Hometowns

Lecturer's name: Patricia Lyons

Course objectives:

- To expand English vocabulary
- To improve spoken and written descriptions in English
- To develop paragraph writing skills
- To learn more about one's hometown

Course content:

Students will create fudoki about the natural environment and culture of their hometowns through a process of group discussion, brainstorming, and paragraph writing.

Information for students:

Students are encouraged to obtain general information about their hometowns before the course begins or to have access to such information via the internet, etc.

Textbook/materials:

All classroom materials provided

Evaluation:

Classroom participation and commitment	50%
Weekly and final written assignments	50%