

English C Course Semester 2 2002

Theme: England

Lecturer's name: Jim King

Course objectives:

- : to introduce various aspects of English society and culture
- : to improve communication fluency
- : to develop vocabulary
- : to practise listening & reading skills

Course content:

The course offers a wide variety of activities. For example:

- Pair work speaking activities & roleplays
- Listening activities
- Word games to reinforce new vocabulary
- Group discussion
- Short reading exercises

Information for students: Students should be prepared to:

- be active in class
- give and ask for opinions
- be punctual
- speak only in English
- use imagination

Textbook/materials:

Students will need to purchase the textbook English Through England by Jim King (available through Co-op)

Evaluation:

Classwork	70%
Examination	30%