

English C Course

Semester 1 2005

Theme: TOEIC Based English Communication

Lecturer's name: Mark D. Stafford

Course objectives:

The aim of the course is for students to improve their TOEIC scores while learning basic practical uses of the English language. The objectives are that students learn how to manage time well, to answer questions efficiently, and to learn over 100 new vocabulary items specific to TOEIC, but also useful in everyday life.

Course content:

Students will communicate very often in pairs and in small groups while learning how to take the TOEIC more efficiently. Before and after answering questions, students will discuss the best ways to approach the test questions.

Information for students:

Studying for TOEIC sounds difficult and lonely, but you will learn from each other in enjoyable ways to find the best ways to get a higher score.
