

English C Course

Semester 1 2005

Theme: Basic Skills for TOEIC

Lecturer's name: Tsuyoshi Kanamori

Course objectives:

To develop essential skills for listening and reading
To provide practise using these skills in an integrated way through various activities
To provide practise of skills necessary to TOEIC-type tests

Course content:

This course is designed to develop listening and reading skills for communication. Through exposure to natural English using authentic materials, you will be expected to master the intermediate level of English. You will also be expected to gain the basic knowledge and skills needed for TOEIC.

Information for students:

Textbook/materials:

Please bring a file for handouts.

Evaluation:

Ongoing assessment of contribution to and demonstrated ability in class activities (including reading, listening, writing and speaking)	50%
Achievement test	20%
Proficiency test	30%

English Education Center Ehime University