

English C Course

Semester 1 2005

Theme: Overseas Travel Experiences

Lecturer`s name: Richard Blight

Course objectives:

-  to develop English skills for a variety of overseas travel experiences
-  to practise communicating in English in common travel situations
-  to learn about travel experiences and situations in other countries

Course content:

A variety of overseas travel experiences will be studied, including transport systems, types of accomodation, going sightseeing and shopping, ordering in a restaurant, and visiting foreign cities.

Information for students:

Students should bring their textbook to each lesson, as well as a dictionary (paper or electronic), some notepaper, and pens for writing activities.

Textbook/materials:

All students are required to purchase the following class textbook. The teacher will also provide supplementary activities.

On the Move: English Skills for Global Communication
by Steve Gershon, Chris Mares & Richard Walker
Longman (ISBN: 962-00-5258-7)

Evaluation:

- 25% Class Participation
- 25% Individual Presentation
- 25% Conversation Tests
- 25% Examinations

English Education Center Ehime University