

S1 (Summer 2006)

Intensive English Course

Course Number: ENGLISH S1 679
Theme: Preparation for study abroad
Instructor's name: アニー・マーロウ

Key Words

English; study abroad; Australia; writing; speaking; university entrance language exam

Course Aims and Objectives:

To give students practise in the basic skills required for successful study abroad.

Course Content:

The class will focus on writing and speaking skills and students will be required to do a lot of both. There may also be use of online language resources. More specific details of the course will be advised in class.

Information for Students:

This course is NOT suitable for students with low level English writing and reading skills. It is best suited for those serious students wishing to study in universities abroad, particularly in Australia or England. This is NOT a TOEFL course.

Class Rules

100% attendance is a requirement of this course. Do not enrol in this course if you cannot attend every class.

Textbook Information:

All materials will be provided.

Assessment:

Classwork, written tasks, presentations are all assessed.

ENGLISH EDUCATION CENTER